Jam Today – Fly Tomorrow

1. have/show/carry/wear/produce a security dog-tag; identify themselves; show identification
   Fel: take the lift to the 7th floor; security dog-tag (fel om verbet saknas)

2. a/one plane lands or takes off every 45 seconds; a lot of /so many planes land and take off; Heathrow is a very busy airport; there are 82 movements hourly; there are a lot of take-offs and landings
   Acc. a lot of things happen at the same time
   Fel: a lot of things happen; you understand why there are delays; so many planes take off/land (om alltså endast “land” eller “take off” finns med)

3. there aren’t more delays; the delays haven’t been worse; it hasn’t been better organised; there was no centralised way of arranging flight paths (through Europe)
   Acc. the problems aren’t worse
   Fel: things have been organised; people put up with them

4. (the installation of) a single/big computer (in Brussels); a technical breakthrough
   Fel: Keith Williams; using computers (alltför generellt svar); a monster

5. strikes (by air traffic controllers); the ground service; that the capacity at some resort airports is limited
   Fel: choke-points in the sky-corridors; congestion (=“technological problems”)

6. it was available; it existed
   Acc. (it is) available
   Fel: it worked; it was precise, be available (obegripligt p g a felaktig verbform)

7. go to resorts (ignored by most scheduled services); go to smaller/other airports (which can cope with only limited numbers); often have other destinations
   Fel: are ignored by most scheduled services; are cheaper (står inte i texten); can cope with only limited numbers (gäller “airports” och inte “charter flights”)

8. (primitive) air traffic control; their/(the) technology; the organisation of the travel industry; travel industry organisation; handling capacity
   Fel: the travel industry

9. it keeps/they have a back-up aircraft/airplane (at/in Manchester)
   Fel: they rent a plane; they are trying to break the mould

10. (be prepared to) pay more (for the flights)
    Fel: do two round-trips instead of three